Town of Bluffton Hosts Quarterly Meeting with Local Contractors to Review and Discuss Building Codes & Building Inspection Process/Public Is Invited/Sept. 9th

If you are a contractor or involved in the building construction industry or a resident who wants to learn more about the permitting, plan submittal or other Town of Bluffton processes, you are invited to a quarterly meeting, Wednesday, September 9th at 6 p.m. in Town Hall's Auditorium. Town Hall is located at 20 Bridge Street.

This quarterly meeting brings together contractors, builders and the Town's building inspectors to discuss interpretations of building codes, the inspection process and pro-active actions which can assist in streamlining the inspection process.

This meeting also provides an opportunity for Town inspectors and contractors to discuss building safety statistics, effective plan submittals and plan reviews.

If you need more information about this quarterly meeting, please contact the Town's Chief Building Official George Owens at (email): gowens@townofbluffton.com or (cell) 843.540.9479.
